'Man's Big Choice' Part 2

It is way past the time that we need to manage ourselves and our environment, in a manner that is sustainable into the future.

If we fail to do this NOW, we are condemning future generations to ever increasing misery & starvation.

This is your discussion - so bring some thoughts & prepare a reasoned project (small or large) that could help Mankind's sustainability into the future.....

Further Discussion on the topic, 'Man's Big Choice',
